Wild Thing - Josh Bazell

When a reclusive billionaire offers Dr. Peter Brown a job, Brown has no choice but to say yes, even if it means he has to deal with an army of murderers, mobsters, and international drug dealers.

Naked Lunch - William S. Burroughs

When junkie William Lee flees arrest, he tells the story of his drug abuse through vignettes as he travels from the United States to Mexico and beyond.

Lunar Park - Bret Easton Ellis

After becoming a best-selling novelist while still in college, the narrator's fame disintegrates through booze and drugs.

Enon - Paul Harding

A father desperately tries to come to terms with the loss of his thirteen-year-old daughter, killed in an accident.

Crank - Ellen Hopkins

Kristina Snow is the perfect daughter, but she meets a boy who introduces her to drugs and she becomes a very different person.

Winter's Bone - Daniel Woodrell

Living in the Ozarks and caring for her poverty-stricken family, sixteen-year-old Ree Dolly learns that they will lose their house unless her bail-skipping father can be found and made to appear at an upcoming court date.
