Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Policy

The Webster Public Library upholds and affirms the Library Bill of Rights, which supports the right of each individual, regardless of age, to access constitutionally protected material in any format. All collections of the library, including adult collections and Internet access, are available to children and teenagers. Users are reminded that the library computers are located in public areas which are shared by people of all ages, backgrounds, and sensibilities. The library cannot be held responsible for what may be accessed through the library computers.

Internet Safety

In compliance with the Children's Internet Protection Act, the Board of Trustees has elected to filter pornography on its computers and wireless network. It is the responsibility of parents to monitor their children's behavior and use of library materials and resources, including Internet access. The Internet is not a secure medium and all transactions, files, and communication may be subject to unauthorized access by third parties. The library will not release information on the use of electronic resources by members of the public except as required by law.

Rules Governing Use

1. Internet use requires a library card issued through the Monroe County Library System. Visitors may request a guest log-on or an Internet Only card.
2. The Internet may be accessed for 2 hours per person per day.
3. Any illegal use including the viewing of child pornography, infringement of copyright, credit card fraud, and the sending of libelous and/or harassing email is prohibited.
4. Any attempt to damage computer equipment or alter software is prohibited.
5. Changing the arrangement of library computers and attached equipment is prohibited.
6. Any impingement of other patrons' privacy is not allowed.

Disclaimer

Users access the library computers and wireless network at their own risk. The library is not responsible for equipment malfunction, loss of data, or any damages to the user's peripheral equipment (disks, flash drives, etc.).

Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy may result in restriction or termination of the user's library privileges and may result in prosecution under local, state or federal laws.
